

June 17, 2013

The Open Research Center for Minamata Studies, Kumamoto Gakuen University

The Conditions of Publication and Use of Broadcasting Materials

The Open Research Center for Minamata Studies, Kumamoto Gakuen University (hereinafter referred to as the "the Center") provides broadcasting materials at no fee under the conditions of use as stated below.

1. The applicant is not allowed to use the provided materials for purposes other than the original intent stated in the request form. He/she is not allowed to either give or lend them to anyone through copying or distributing. Regarding rebroadcasting, please reapply for use after a final decision on rebroadcasting is made.
2. Photographing of materials is required to be done in the presence of the staff in charge of the Open Research Center for Minamata Studies: the On-campus Research Center for Minamata Studies at Kumamoto Gakuen University or the On-site Research Center for Minamata Studies in Minamata City.
3. Without the permission of the Center, the applicant is not allowed to edit the materials using techniques such as blurring, airbrushing, trimming, or synthesizing.
4. After using the materials, the material data must be completely deleted from all devices including the computers and the peripheral equipment. All the copies produced by using the original video or picture files shall be erased and destroyed.
- 5 After using the materials, please submit or return the following to the Center: (a) a copy of the broadcast program, (b) other things that show the contents of the materials, and (c) the materials that the Center lent to the applicant.
6. The credit title is required to be shown under the name of the Open Research Center for Minamata Studies, Kumamoto Gakuen University.
7. If using the materials or a complete piece of work produced from the materials draws some complaint, the applicant shall deal with it all by him/herself. If any conflict arises, the applicant shall take care of it and the Center shall accept no responsibility for it.
8. In case that anyone besides the applicant uses the materials, the applicant shall inform the user to follow the above conditions.
9. When the applicant violates the above conditions or is likely to violate them, the Center may ask him/her to stop using the materials. As for those who are identified violating any above condition, the Center requires to bring them into talks.