

1st Japan-ASEAN Medical Seminar on Human Health Impact of Heavy Metals

Hasanuddin University, Makassar, Indonesia May 3rd, 2019

Japan - Indonesia medical seminar on human health impact of Mercury will be held on May 3rd, 2019 at Hasanuddin University, Makassar, Indonesia.

Lectures on Impact of Mercury on Human Health

Minamata spectrum syndrome

by Prof. Akitomo Shimoji

Kumamoto Gakuen University

Mercury intoxication and cancer pathogenesis

by Dr. dr. Rina Masadah, DFM, M.Phil, SpPA(K)

Hasanuddin University

Lectures on Health Impact Issues and Social Medical Problems of the Family

Lessons from Minamata disease, and current challenges

by Prof. Masanori Hanada

Kumamoto Gakuen University

Staying close to the Minamata disease patients

by Dr. Masami Tajiri

Kumamoto Gakuen University

Problems of illegal cosmetics containing mercury in Indonesia

by Dr. Hasriwiani Habo Abbas

Universitas Muslim Indonesia (UMI)

Medical geology and its challenges

by Prof. Masayuki Sakakibara

Research Institute for Humanity and Nature, and Ehime University

Think!
Health &
Well-being of Future Generations?

Invited Speakers

Prof. Masanori Hanada

Prof. Akitomo Shimoji

Dr. Masami Tajiri

Kumamoto Gakuen University

Dr. dr. Rina Masadah, DFM, M.Phil, SpPA(K)

Hasanuddin University

Dr. Hasriwiani Habo Abbas

Universitas Muslim Indonesia (UMI)

Topic Workshops

Impact of Mercury on Human Health for medical doctors, researchers, and scientists

Health Impact Issues and Social Medical Problems of the Family for nurses, midwives, and health practitioners

Venue

Prof. Amiruddin Auditorium,
Faculty of Medicine, Hasanuddin University

Date and Time

3rd May, 2019
7:30am ~ 5:00pm

Registration

www.chikyu.ac.jp/srirep/his1

Hasanuddin University

Kumamoto Gakuen
University

Ehime University

Research Institute for Humanity and Nature